Resident makes a stand against 'appalling' flats

By Alex Ballinger

A BLOCK of flats in Abingdon town centre has been dubbed a 'health hazard' by a councillor calling on housing association owners to fix the problems, including rising damp and broken lights.

Abingdon town councillor Dennis Garrett appealed to Sovereign Housing Association to improve the building housing flats 16-30 in West St Helen Street, after looking around on the invite of a resident.

Cllr Garrett said: "Depressed is how I can best describe my feelings. There are weeds everywhere, missing or damaged beyond repair gas meter casings, and overfull waste bins.

"I am really concerned however with the serious rising damp problem in the far end of the building. The widowed long-standing resident of number 20 showed me the effect of this on her bathroom wall. She reported the first signs of this in June and it has now risen to over 12 inches.

"This constitutes a health hazard."

Sovereign Housing owns the building of about 14 residents, but some flats inside are privately owned.

Resident Tobias Fett contacted Cllr Garrett and the housing association calling for them to fix a broken light switch in the hallway and put back outside lighting, which was taken out and not replaced.

He also urged them to remove mould

Expansion plans revealed for Abingdon's leisure centre

A NEW entrance and extended gym and crèche are among the plans unveiled for Abingdon's White Horse Leisure and Tennis Centre.

A glass fronted extension and covered walkway are included in the designs for the town's leisure centre in Audlett Drive.

A planning application for the changes was being considered by Vale of White Horse District Council at a meeting last night as the Guardian went to press.

The plans were recommended for approval by council officers.

For an update of the decision see oxfordshireguardian.co.uk or next week's paper.

PM opens Oxford Parkway station to first passengers

• The new Oxford Parkway station

• David Cameron speaks in front of Oxford Parkway as he unveils a commemorative plaque (picture courtesy of Chiltern Railways)

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORDSHIRE commuters heralded a 'momentous moment' as they stepped on to ride the first trains to London at the unveiling of Oxford Parkway station on Monday.

The new £130 million station next to Water Eaton Park & Ride is expected to see 1,000 passengers pass through its doors every day.

The service runs six commuter trains to get into London Marylebone before 9am, the earliest of which gets to London before 7.30am.

Network Rail built the new station and Chiltern Railways is running the trains. Oxford Parkway is the first new line between London and a major city since 1899.

Rob Brighouse, Chiltern Railways managing director said: "I'm absolutely delighted to unveil the station and it's tremendously exciting for us as we've been working on this project for 10 years.

"It's a massive deal for the people of Oxford, as it will provide a huge boost to transport between the city and London.

The station has six members of staff, 1,500 car parking spaces, 150 bike parking spaces, and a café run by Little Italy Espresso Bar in the station building.

Mr Brighouse added: 'Accessibility is a big factor for us and people can drive their cars straight to the station here, which we hope will help alleviate traffic congestion on the A34."

Monday also saw the launch of the new upgraded station in Bicester, named Bicester Village station, which runs directly along the route towards Oxford Parkway.

Prime Minister David Cameron gave a speech as he officially opened the station on Monday afternoon.

He said: "This new line and two new stations mark a historic moment for Oxfordshire. From today there will be more trains, faster journey times and better transport links for people living and working there."

Ken Hand, 72, from Kidlington, has followed the project from the beginning and said: "I came down to see the very first train leave for the station for London as I see it as a pretty momentous moment."

"It will be great for Kidlington to have a station so close and it will be also be a huge benefit to the residents of North Oxford.

"I think it will be very busy and people will be surprised by how popular the station will get."

Matthew Clarke, 50, of Boars Hill, who travels into London frequently during the week, said: "I think it's a good idea to have a station here as it's a very convenient location for commuters. I usually get the train to London at Didcot but I thought I'd come try it out for myself.

"I do think it's a bit of an ugly station myself, but it is functional to a certain extent."

Helen Whittow, 53, of central Oxford watched it leave the platform before catching the second train to London herself.

Ms Whittow, who usually gets the train from Oxford Railway station, said: "I'm quite excited to try it out. The trains from Oxford Railway station can run quite late so I'm hoping this station will be a bit more reliable.

"I thought it would be fun to give the train a go on the opening day and I'll maybe use it again in the future due to how heavily congested the centre of town can be in terms of getting to the station."

RAF inquests

OXFORD: Inquests into the deaths of two pilots based at RAF Benson near Wallingford opened on Tuesday.

Flight Lieutenants Alan 'Scotty' Scott, 32, of Baker Avenue, Benson and Geraint 'Roly' Roberts, 44, of Wokefield Row, Mortimer near Reading, died when their helicopter crashed in Afghanistan on October 11.

An inquest was opened and postponed at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

Assistant coroner Nicholas Gardiner said post mortems at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital on October 21 revealed Flt Lt Scott died from multiple injuries and Flt Lt Roberts died from a severe blunt head injury.

The repatriation ceremony of the two men was held at RAF Brize Norton air base near Carterton on October 20.

A date for a full inquest has not yet been set as investigations are still under way.

New court date

OXFORD: A Kidlington man found guilty of making almost 25,000 indecent photos of children had his sentencing rescheduled for November 30.

Wai Yin Tse, of Cromwell Way, was also convicted of having seven videos of extreme porn at Oxford Crown Court on September 30.

Tse, 43, was charged with nine counts including making 24,898 indecent photos.

Sentencing was to take place on Tuesday but was postponed as documents were not ready.

Woman stands accused of exaggerating for extra benefits in slavery trial

• The entrance to Redbridge Hollow caravan park

A WOMAN on trial for conspiracy to defraud and holding another person in slavery was accused of exaggerating a disability form for benefits, Oxford Crown Court heard on Tuesday.

Mary Joyce, 59, of Oxford's Redbridge Hollow caravan park, denies overstating 51-year-old Nicholas Iliff's disabilities on a document for his benefits.

Prosecuting, Rachel Drake said: "You've written 'some times my hands move uncontrollably by themselves and most times it's hard'.

"I'm suggesting that you exaggerated on this form to make sure Mr Iliff gets his benefits."

To which Joyce responded: "No ma'am I didn't."

Ms Drake said Joyce filled in the form herself but gave it to Mr Iliff to sign while he was in hospital in 2014.

Joyce added: "I understand what you're saying but I'm querying the hand writing.

"I agree that there's forms in here I have filled in. That just doesn't look like my hand writing."

Mary Joyce, her dad Christopher Joyce, 81, sister Helen Collins, 44 and brother Timothy Joyce Senior, 44, all of Redbridge Hollow deny conspiring to hold Mr Iliff in slavery and conspiracy to require Mr Iliff to perform forced labour and conspiracy to defraud.

Timothy Joyce Senior is accused of and denies assault by beating.

The trial continues.

Petition to lower speed limit after crash death

By Alex Ballinger

A PETITION launched by a Sutton Courtenay resident calling for the speed limit on the B4016 Drayton Road between the village and Drayton to be lowered from 40mph to 30mph has had more than 200 signatures.

Bryony Landsbert started a campaign to cut the speed limit by 10mph after 43-year-old Claire Caldwell, from Fyfield Wick died in June this year after the car she was a passenger in collided with a tree.

She said: "The fatal accident in July was the most recent of a well established history of overturned cars, collision and fatalities.

"The road is barely wide enough for two large vehicles to pass and in places there is no footpath for pedestrians.

"In order to make this road safer for both residents and road users, the residents would like a 30mph speed limit and suitable signage so that it is recognised as a village environment."

The petition on campaign website change.org has gathered 246 signatures since it was set up last month.

Sutton Courtenay Parish Council approached Oxfordshire County Council after the crash to ask if the speed limit could be lowered.

A response from OCC's Road Safety Engineering Team on October 5 said: "The request for a 30mph speed limit here has been added to a list of possible speed limit changes to be investigated in more detail when resources permit.

"On the basis of a preliminary assessment – which has included carrying out a speed survey and a reviews of the current Department for Transport guidance on setting local speed limits – it would seem that the 40mph speed limit is appropriate taking account of the current character of the road."

Chairman of Sutton Courtenay Parish Council Michael Jenkins said the council is considering other options to slow cars down instead including installing a chicane or a 'slow' sign triggered when vehicles are going too fast.

Cllr Jenkins said: "The real problem is people driving over 40mph. We're in the early stages of exploring a vehicle-activated sign.

"We wanted a sign that would tell people how fast they were going, but it looks like we may only be able to get a sign that tells you to slow down if you're going over 40.

"We've also got a design for a pinch point that has been costed but we just don't have the money."

A full inquest into Mrs Caldwell's death is due to be held on January 26 at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

It is unknown at this stage why the car crashed.

from his neighbours' flats and was very concerned about his own section of four flats.

The 31-year-old said: "There are some very vulnerable people living in these blocks, including old age, disabled and new born.

"Over the last six weeks the only source of outdoor lighting has also been removed, leaving the area completely in darkness.

"This shows a lack of consideration to the more vulnerable residents. I am shocked at the risks they are being exposed to."

He rents a privately-owned flat and says his landlady is charged an annual maintenance fee for work including window cleaning, which has not been done in 14 months.

Mr Fett has also written to Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood calling on her to help.

He and Cllr Garrett met with Sovereign representatives at the flats on Monday.

Sovereign spokesman Debbie Down told the Guardian yesterday: "We were disappointed to hear of our residents' concerns as we pride ourselves on providing good quality homes and will take all necessary steps to rectify repairs in our homes. We've since discussed this matter with our residents and we'll continue to work together to reach a positive outcome."

Burglary stabbing

ABINGDON: A man was stabbed in the thigh and another man hit in the face as burglars raided an Abingdon home on Tuesday.

Three offenders forced into the property in St John's Road at about 5.30pm before the victims were attacked.

One was stabbed with a sharp instrument in the upper leg and another hit in the nose, maybe with a baseball bat.

Both needed hospital treatment.

Police are appealing for anyone with information to call 101.

BID results due

ABINGDON: Voting on whether to create an Abingdon 'Business Improvement District' (BID) closes today at 5pm before the results are announced tonight.

The vote was open to businesses in the town centre.

The BID would see them pay into a scheme raising £800,000 for improvements and investment in the town over the next five years.

Opening Dawes

ABINGDON: Abingdon's County Hall Museum in Market Place is hosting an exhibition of artwork by pupils with dyslexia.

'Opening Daws' showcases pictures, sculptures and writing by pupils at Abingdon's Unicorn School in Marcham Road showing what it is like learning and working with dyslexia.

It launched on October 24 will run until November 1.

Duo sentenced after police discover cannabis deal bags

A FARINGDON man and woman pleaded guilty at Oxford Crown Court to possession with intent to supply cannabis, after police found 40 deal bags with dog logos on the side at their home.

James Redman, 24, of Catkins Close, was jailed for 15 months last Thursday and Sophie Humphrey, 24, of the same address, was handed a 12-month jail term suspended for two years.

She was also given a 12-month supervision order and ordered to attend a course.

Thames Valley Police officers uncovered a 'large quantity' of cannabis at their home, some of which was packaged in deal bags.

Police have previously found similar bags on children aged under 16 in Faringdon.

Cash totalling around £1,400 was also found at the property, which has been confiscated, along with a list containing names and numbers.

Redman was arrested that same day with Humphrey voluntarily interviewed before they were charged on July 24.

Faringdon Police Station PC Robert Maris said: "Drug dealing has proven to pose a threat of risk and harm to the most vulnerable members of our society."

Daughter's tribute to dad: 'Our hearts have been broken'

By Alex Ballinger

A DAUGHTER whose dad and partner died in a car crash near East Hanney paid tribute to the 'dearly missed' couple, after an inquest into their deaths on Tuesday.

The inquest heard Ray Mace and Heather Norton died after couple's red Vauxhall Meriva drifted onto the wrong side of the A338 into an oncoming white Mercedes van on May 5 this year.

Assistant coroner Nicholas Gardiner concluded the crash caused the deaths at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court in New Road.

Mr Mace, 79, from Lockway in Drayton and Ms Norton, 85, from North Way in Steventon died from multiple injuries at Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital that day.

Mr Mace's daughter Sarah Dodd said: "Our hearts have been broken by the death of our father Ray Mace and his beloved partner Heather Norton.

"The tragic events leading to their deaths have shocked all who knew him."

She added: "We have taken great comfort in the fact that they were so well thought of and will be dearly missed by not only their families but also by their many friends in their local community."

Mr Mace was a retired boiler stoker engineer and had previously had his lower leg amputated after a car crash in 1959.

He was driving southbound towards Wantage with Ms Norton, a retired civil servant suffering from Alzheimer's disease, in the passenger seat.

In a statement read out at the inquest, the van driver Mark Elsey said he was going at about the speed limit, which is 50mph.

The statement continued: "I saw the red car travelling towards me on my side of the road.

"I remember seeing this red car in front of me. I started braking. I was able to see a woman in the red car."

Mr Elsey said he could remember getting out the van from the passengers side and someone asking him if he was okay.

He added: "I can't recall anything else about the crash."

Forensic collision investigator Kevin Spiller said there was nothing to suggest Mr Mace was driving over the speed limit.

Mr Gardiner said: "No external reason for the Vauxhall's behaviour could be obtained.

"we could speculate and come up with any thoughts as to what happened in the car.

"It would not be right for me to speculate."

Council votes through plan for storage container pizza restaurant

DIDCOT: Plans for a pop-up stone baked pizza restaurant in a restyled storage container outside the entrance to Didcot's Sainsbury's were approved by South Oxfordshire District Council's planning committee last week.

The pizza restaurant was given planning permission to be installed next to the amphitheatre-style steps in the Orchard Centre.

Developers Hammerson, the same developers planning to build a phase two extension of the Orchard Centre, submitted the planning application.

The plans state the pizza restaurant would move into a new unit when the build is completed.

Didcot Town Council had previously recommended the plans refusal saying it is not in keeping with the street scene.

Seacourt revamp plans considered

• An artist's impression of the Seacourt Tower Retail Park

By Alex Ballinger

A PLANNING application for the redevelopment of Seacourt Tower Retail Park in Botley were to be considered by Vale of White Horse District Council last night as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press.

The plans for phase two of the development include building new shops, restaurants and a café as well as changes to the parking and were recommended for approval by Vale planning officers.

During the consultation period, 28 letters of objection were submitted to the council as well as an objection from North Hinksey Parish Council.

Resident of nearby Hazel Road, Dave Ralphs, said: "[I] object to the loss of a filling station and car wash which could easily be retained on the site.

"Although the current station is pricy compared to others it is used and is the only station within several miles of Botley."

Under the application the BP petrol station would be demolished.

In their objection the parish council said: "The recent changes to the junctions with the two arms of North Hinksey Lane and the slip road to the A34/A420 Cumnor Hill by-pass have made these more difficult and dangerous for pedestrians.

"There is no good cycle access to the Seacourt retail site.

"When the previous applications were approved there was no intention to close the nearest petrol station at the Oxpens.

"This is now certain to happen, so the situation has changed."

The application was submitted to the Vale council on May 6 this year by BAPT Ltd and was set to be considered at a meeting of the council's planning committee at The Beacon in Portway, Wantage at 6.30pm last night.

In a statement submitted with the application, written by Southampton-based Saunders Architects, said: "The retail units have been designed to be attractive and modern in appearance."

For an update on last night's decision check oxfordshireguardian.co.uk or see next week's paper.

Oxford Uni study reveals Britons don't like being touched

AN eye-opening study from Oxford University scientists has revealed where people are more comfortable about being touched through a series of body maps,

The study involved Oxford University working with researchers from Finland's Aalto University and saw more than 1,300 men and women from five countries asked to colour in areas of the body where they would allow particular people to touch.

Their answers were then used to create the maps, which show how touchable areas of the body are for particular relationships.

Results revealed that women are uncomfortable being touched by male strangers on most areas of their body whilst men do not want relatives of either gender touching their genitals.

Compared with Russia, France, Italy and Finland, British people are less comfortable with touching, and Finns are most comfortable with touching overall.

Oxford University's Professor Robin Dunbar,said: "It is the relationship rather than familiarity that matters."

Call for residents to vote on whether to hike their own taxes

By Loughlan Campbell

RESIDENTS should decide whether hiking council tax is the best option to avoid cuts to vital services through an Oxfordshire-wide referendum, a trio of independent councillors has said.

Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth announced last week an extra £50 million could have to be cut from 2016 to 2020, on top of £290m being cut by 2018.

But independent county councillors Lynda Atkins, Mark Gray and Les Sibley banded together to call for a referendum giving residents the choice to combat the cuts by raising their own council taxes by 10 to 15 per cent.

Cllr Atkins, representing Wallingford, told the Guardian on Tuesday: "The impact of these cuts will be so desperately bad so we want people to have a choice, and are therefore asking, would residents be willing to pay a bit more for their council tax if it meant these cuts could be prevented?"

The 10-15 per cent increase would be about an extra 50p a day per household, equating to an extra £182.50 a year.

Based on an OCC report estimating the county will have 282,250 households by 2016, the amount of extra cash raised would be over £51m in one year.

Cllr Atkins added: "If we prevent these cuts, it could help us save the children centres and the proposed cuts to transport.

"I stood for election saying that I would improve services, not see them reduced under my tenure."

The county's 44 children's centres and seven early intervention hubs are under threat amid the council cuts as well as 100 bus services across the county.

Cllr Hudspeth said the idea is 'definitely an option' to offset the cuts.

He said: "It's definitely an option but it would be a difficult proposition for them to consider as it's related to increasing their council tax.

"If we call a referendum we have to bear in mind that it will cost potentially as much as £800,000 to run it and that money could be taken from services which are already strained."

Cllr Mark Gray added: "We were not elected to allow cuts like this happen, and we think this will give the opportunity for people to say what they really think on the cuts and share their voices."

A county-wide vote on the issue would be needed on the increase as councils are not allowed to raise council tax by more than 2 per cent per year – without holding a referendum.

In May this year Bedfordshire residents voted 'no' on a referendum on whether to up the amount charged by their police and crime commissioner in the UK's first referendum on council tax increase.

A public meeting on the cuts was held on Tuesday at OCC's headquarters, County Hall, in Oxford's New Road.

Another meeting is due to be held in Banbury Town Hall in Bridge Street on Monday from 7pm to 8.30pm.

The last of the three meeting is at Wallingford's Regal Centre next Thursday at the same time.

An OCC consultation on the cuts closes on November 30.

Cash stolen

WITNEY: Burglars stole cash and tried to steal a vehicle after smashing a window at Carpet Options in Witney's Station Road on Friday.

The incident, at about 9pm, saw offenders steal a 'small amount' of cash.

PC Ross Clarkson from Witney Police Station, said: "We are appealing to anyone who may have heard or seen suspicious behaviour in this area at this time to please get in touch via 101."

CBO Order

BICESTER: A Bicester man has been issued with a two-year criminal behaviour order (CBO).

Christopher Schweitzer, 51, of Cartmel, was issued with the order at North Oxfordshire Magistrates' Court last Monday for verbally abusing and threatening a neighbour on October 31 last year and being aggressive to a customer at Tesco Petrol Station in Bicester's Pingle Drive on December 12.

Roofer conned elderly residents out £13,000

A ROOFER who conned elderly Oxfordshire residents out of £13,000 has been handed a seven-month prison sentence suspended for two years.

James Richards, 38, of Pershore, Worcestershire, admitted two charges of fraud by false representation, and one of engaging in a misleading commercial practice.

He was sentenced at Oxford Crown Court on Friday and will also have to do 200 hours of unpaid work.

Richards, trading as Homelife Developments Ltd, targeted three customers in their 70s and 80s in Yarnton, Aston and Carterton during 2013.

The roofer had previously provided two of his victims with compensation of £12,000 and £1,400 respectively and was ordered to pay a further £1,200 to one of his victims to repair damage caused to the victim's chimney and roof.

Martin Woodley, Oxfordshire County Council's Trading Standards doorstep crime lead officer, said: "The offender approached the victim and made out that work was required on the roof.

"After convincing the victim that the work was required, he then grossly overcharged for carrying out poor quality work which was unnecessary."

Oxfordshire County Council deputy leader, Rodney Rose, said: "I hope these cases act as a deterrent to any dishonest traders who might be thinking of trying to defraud the public by grossly overcharging and carrying out substandard work."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 18 and he'll be happy to help!

Concerns voiced after consultation summary

By Loughlan Campbell

A COUNTY councillor says she is 'disappointed' by Oxfordshire County Council after a consultation report released last week into road improvements in Headington was summarised in just under two pages, despite receiving more than 1,000 public responses.

The council launched a consultation into the £12.5 million Access to Headington Scheme in July and hundreds of residents shared their views online on the council's website.

The scheme involves plans to remove grass verges and could see residents' parking spaces in Windmill Road being replaced by bus and cycle lanes.

Oxfordshire County Councillor for Headington and Headington resident, Roz Smith, said: "I was disappointed to see that after the consultation happened, all that was put on the website was just a short summary.

"I think it's hard on the residents as they have put time and effort into sharing their views and it's hard to know if they've really been taken on board."

However, the county council have said that all the comments they received as part of the consultation are being considered as part of an on-going process.

Council spokeswoman, Emily Reed said: "This process involves carrying out additional surveys to help us gather more detailed information about the area

"The surveys will mean the county council is better informed to consider and respond to all comments received. This work will be taking place over the next few months."

The council said another public consultation is pencilled in for next February.

County councillor for Churchill and Lye Valley, Liz Brighouse said: "I feel this scheme will resolve some issues for traffic in Headington but it needs to be a lot clearer for residents in terms of how their responses are heard."

A decision on the plans is likely to be made in May or June next year and work could start in the Summer.

Quarry plans to be submitted in 2016

A PLANNING application for a gravel pit and concrete processing plant within five miles of Didcot is to be submitted early next year.

Waste disposal company, Swindon-based Hills, want to build the plant east of the railway at Culham and south of the A415, and are set to hold talks with neighbouring parish councils next month ahead of a public exhibition.

Hills will hold talks with parish councils in Clifton Hampden, Burcot, Long Wittenham, Appleford and Culham early next month.

Objections have been aired by campaign group Bachport (Burcot & Clifton Hampden for the Protection of the River Thames) backed by parish councils and has nearly 700 registered supporters.

Ian Mason, of Bachport, said: "We think our campaign is going well and we want to get as much support as we can.

"We will inspect what they propose with this planning application and make our case to have it rejected. It's simply not needed and is an unwelcome development on our doorsteps."

Mr Mason revealed that he had been told by Hills managing director Peter Andrew that a planning application is due to be submitted to South Oxfordshire District Council early next year.

Monica Hayes, spokesperson for Hills, said: "Hills Quarry Products is organising to meet with parish councils in early November to outline our plans for a sand and gravel quarry.

"Later in November we will hold a public exhibition giving local residents the opportunity to find out about our proposals."

Dates for the meetings and exhibition are to be confirmed.

1,000mph world record team's Oxfordshire HQ

By Alex Ballinger

OXFORDSHIRE'S links with science and engineering are now even stronger as the team behind the 1,000 miles per hour world land speed record attempt moved their headquarters to Didcot yesterday.

Bloodhound SSC, a team building a supersonic car capable of travelling at speeds of 1,000mph, moved into the recently opened University Technology College (UTC) Oxfordshire.

The car itself is being constructed in Bristol but the head offices will be moved to the college from Kingston Upon Thames in London.

The project's director and former land speed record holder, Richard Noble OBE, said: "Oxfordshire is an ideal central location for this national endeavour.

"Even better, being at UTC Oxfordshire reinforces Bloodhound's primary objective: to inspire the next generation of scientists and engineers.

"On behalf of the Bloodhound team I would like to thank UTC Oxfordshire and its team for the speed in which decisions were made. It promises to be a very fine relationship."

UTC Oxfordshire will now act as the office for Mr Noble where he will direct the operation.

Testing of the jet engine and rocket propelled car is to take place in Cornwall early next year, and the team hope to break the current land speed record of 763mph next Summer.

Former Royal Air Force pilot Wing Commander Andy Green, who holds the current land speed record, will take the car to speeds of 800mph in 2016 and then hopes to take the car up to 1,000mph in 2017.

The setting for this historic world record attempt will be a 12-mile long track on the Hakskeen Pan in the Northern Cape, South Africa.

A team based in South Africa has hand-cleared more than 16,000 tonnes of stone over the last five years to prepare the track.

UTC Oxfordshire's principal Owain Johns, said: "This new partnership means that our students will be rubbing shoulders with the team behind one of the most high-profile and exciting science and engineering challenges of our time.

"The ethos of Bloodhound is to break new ground in science and engineering while also inspiring the next generation of scientists and engineers."

"We are looking forward to realising the educational benefits of this partnership for our students and for other young people in the community."

Boarding school's paedophile ex-teacher jailed for 19 years

A FORMER teacher at a prestigious Jewish boarding school near Wallingford was sentenced to 19 years in prison at Oxford Crown Court on Friday for sexually abusing schoolboys.

Trevor Bolton, 78, of Kestrel Way in Clacton-on-Sea, Essex, had denied all charges but was found guilty of 21 offences by a unanimous jury last Wednesday and of a further four offences last Thursday by a majority jury of 11 to 1.

He was convicted of a string of offences on eight boys aged 10 to 15 at now-closed Carmel College between 1968 and 1988.

One of Bolton's eight victims, Peter Gluckstein, 56, who now lives in North London, waived his anonymity 'to get the word out'.

• Trevor Bolton, 78

By Loughlan Campbell

He said: "I feel quite overwhelmed by it all.

"I knew it would be a long sentence but the judge really threw the book at him. I don't feel triumphant about it, in fact I feel overwhelmingly sad for the little boys and for me as a little boy for the abuse he did."

Mr Gluckstein, who attended Carmel College between 1969 and 1976, added: "I used to lay awake at night worrying if it would ever go to trial but now it's done, and I speak for me and the other victims who I've been in contact with, when I say that we are all generally relieved."

While sentencing Judge Ian Pringle told Bolton he had forced his victims to 'relive their childhood nightmares'.

He added: "You acted as a father-type figure to these pupils in your care and you would say to some of them that you would be a second father to them. This was all part of your grueling technique which you played on your young victims and you began to nurture them, ultimately, for your own sexual gratification."

The sentencing followed a three-week trial, which saw his victims give evidence both in person and via video link from different countries.

Victims told the jury as a housemaster and french teacher Bolton invited young boys up to his flat at the school to watch TV and smoke before abusing them. One told the court they would play video games and there was an unlimited supply of chocolate.

The jury heard Bolton befriended one boy when he first arrived at the school because he had been homesick. Bolton comforted him, but that developed from cuddling to sexual contact.

Another victim, who cannot be named for legal reasons, spoke out last Thursday and said: "The trial process conjured a strange mixture of emotions, by turns grueling, frustrating, empowering and, at the end, redemptive but overwhelmingly sad.

"But I'm glad I went through it, glad someone else came forward to start the ball rolling, glad I heard about it and joined in, glad I stuck with it and glad I've been able to exorcise those demons after all these years."

New Abingdon restaurant to open

A NEW restaurant is opening in Abingdon town centre in January.

Wildwood Kitchens is due to open in Bury Street's empty former New Look clothes shop and a neighbouring unit which was jointly used by Hallmark card shop and chocolatiers Thortons.

The Mediterranean style eatery serves pizza, pasta, grilled meats and seafood.

It has nine restaurants across the country including one in Didcot and another in Wantage which opened last year.

Operators Tasty plc confirmed on Friday they are hoping to open in Abingdon in January.

A planning application to convert 1 to 3 Bury Street from shops to a restaurant was granted by Vale of White Horse District Council in March.

A statement submitted with the application by consultants Southern Planning Practice said: "After a vacancy period of two years the opening of a restaurant at the Abbey Shopping Centre must be a welcome boost to the town centre. A use that attracts footfall and custom is in the interests of the health of the town centre."

Quidditch cup

OXFORD: The city will host the 2015 quidditch Southern Cup next month.

The knockout tournament, hosted by Quidditch UK, will crown the south of England's best quidditch team at Horspath Road Athletics Track on November 14 and 15.

It will see 17 teams, including the Oxford Quidlings, battling for the top spot in the region.

Quidditch is a sport played with broomsticks described as a mixture of handball, rubgy and dodgeball, inspired by the popular Harry Potter books.

Knifepoint attack

OXFORD: A robber swung a knife in a 26-year-old man's face when he refused to hand over his bag in Blackbird Leys.

The victim was walking into Guylians Park from Bulrush Road when a man riding a dark mountain bike threatened him at 11.50pm on Friday.

When he did not hand his bag over the offender cut him just over the eye before taking the victim's bag with cash, a key, a wallet with bank cards, a driver's license and national insurance card. He is described as white, around 6ft tall and was wearing a dark beanie-style hat, a beige coat with a high collar which hid his face, and beige trousers and trainers.

University's £25m boost for new Oxford campus

A £25 MILLION grant to help fund a redevelopment of an Oxford University college research site and build housing for 230 students has been announced.

Keble College, in Oxford's Parks Road will get the capital grant between January 2017 and May 2018 from Hampshire-based HB Allen Charitable Trust.

It will go towards the college's £60m project to redevelop Keble's Acland site between Woodstock Road and Banbury Road, and is the largest single donation in the college's 145-year history.

The revamp will provide a 120-seat lecture theatre, seminar rooms, research space, exhibition space, café, a gym, as well as the college's Advanced Studies Centre, .

Philanthropist Heather Allen founded the HB Allen Trust in 1987 and died in 2005.

Keble College is also funding the redevelopment through other philanthropic gifts from alumni, friends of the college, and a 40-year loan.

Peter Shone, an HB Allen trustee, said: "The trustees thought it appropriate to make a landmark grant that will stand as a fitting memorial to the philanthropy of Miss Allen."

Sir Jonathan Phillips, Keble College warden, said: "The Trust's commitment to the project will enable it to proceed to completion well in advance of the college's 150th anniversary in 2020."

The Acland site was formerly a private hospital and was bought by Keble in 2004, currently housing around 80 graduate students.

Building work is due to start in July 2016, with the building hoped to be ready for occupancy in October 2018.

Report into teenager's death at care home is challenged by family

By Alex Ballinger

A NEW report into the death of 18-year-old Connor Sparrowhawk published by the NHS and an Oxfordshire watchdog has been criticised by a campaign group of friends and family calling for justice for the teenager.

The 'Verita 2' report published last Wednesday concludes a key contributor to Connor's death was poor practice of clinical staff, not NHS bosses.

But the JusticeforLB campaign is calling on the authors and commissioners of the report to change their conclusion after a jury inquest, reported by the Guardian, just five days earlier ruled failures in the system contributed to Connor's death.

Connor, who had learning difficulties and epilepsy, drowned after suffering a seizure in a bathtub at an NHS centre called Slade House in Headington in 2013 – run by Southern Health NHS Foundation Trust.

A representative for Connor's family, George Julian, said: "I am unable to accept and support the conclusions drawn by the investigators.

"I consider the evidence collected and the findings presented in the report clearly indicate that Southern Health had information available to them that they failed to act upon."

The report was by NHS England and a partnership of police, NHS Oxfordshire, Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust, Oxford University Hospitals NHS Trust and Oxfordshire County Council, together called the Oxfordshire Safeguarding Adults Board.

At the inquest into Connor's death on October 16 a jury ruled neglect and serious failings in care by Southern Health contributed to his death.

The JusticeforLB campaign was launched after Connor's death, calling for the trust and staff to be held accountable.

LB is a reference to Laughing Boy, a nickname for the Headington teenager who went to Wheatley's John Watson School.

Director of Nursing at NHS England, Jan Fowler said: "While the report concludes that wider deficiencies did not have a direct or indirect connection to the particular failures of care that led to Connor's death, it also rightly highlights the clear need to bring about wider improvements in how the NHS supports people with a learning disability and/or autism."

The unit where Connor died was closed by the trust at the end of 2013 after a Care Quality Commission inspection.

Southern Health chief executive Katrina Percy, said: "Connor died in a place in which he should have been safe. I am very sorry for the failings which contributed to his death."

"Southern Health will consider this report's findings."

News Bites

Air quality website

OXFORD: A new website has been launched giving real-time updates about air quality across Oxfordshire to residents.

The site, www.oxfordshire.air-quality.info, went live last week providing hourly updates about the level of harmful pollutants in the air.

The site has been developed by Oxford City Council and South Oxfordshire, Vale of White Horse, West Oxfordshire and Cherwell district councils.

It was funded by a £20,000 grant from the Government department for environment, food and rural affairs' air quality grant scheme, after a bid was submitted by South Oxfordshire District Council.

Labour wins city by-election vote

OXFORD: Labour candidate Jennifer Pegg won the Oxford City Council by-election for the Northfield Brook ward with 509 votes.

Polling stations were open last Thursday between 7am and 10pm across the ward - which covers about half of Blackbird Leys on the south and west side.

The results announced that night showed second place went to UK Independence Party candidate Joe Lawes with 60 votes and third place to Conservative Gary Dixon with 47.

WIN tickets to see Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games

LORD of the Dance: Dangerous Games showcases exciting and ground-breaking new technology, world champion acrobats and the greatest team of Irish Dancers the world has seen.

Due to popular demand Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games is extending its London run with a limited engagement at the Playhouse Theatre over the festive season until 3 January 2016.

The cast at the Playhouse Theatre will be led by James Keegan and Morgan Comer, who have both won every major title in competitive Irish Dance. They were hand-picked and trained by Flatley himself and have starred in the West End and UK touring shows of Lord of the Dance: Dangerous Games. Michael Flatley, who has recently retired from UK performances, is excited to hand over the reins to such talented performers.

Closing date: Friday, November 6

Lord of the Dance captivates audiences with its mesmerising dance styles rooted in traditional Irish dance, and its passionate love story interwoven with classic Irish folklore.

This latest version of the theatrical extravaganza combines the best of tradition with all the excitement of new music and heart-stopping dance, making it perfect family entertainment this festive season.

We have two pairs of tickets to this great show and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: At which London theatre will you be able to see the show?

Thame Craft Food & Gift Fair

Saturday October 31st & Sunday November 1st

Thame Showground, Kingsey Road, Thame OX9 3JL • The show is open 10am – 6pm daily

Admission is £6.50 Adults, £6.00 Over 65's and £2 Children

The popular Thame Craft, Food & Gift Fair returns on Saturday October 31st and Sunday November 1st with a new show layout.

For the first time at Thame we are bringing our Country Kitchen. TV chefs Marcus Bean on Saturday and Holly Bell on Sunday are joining Adrian and Andy from Crabstock Festival who are there both days to give you some entertaining demonstrations. Adrian and Andy will show you how to prepare and cook great shellfish and seafood dishes. There will also be the food halls where national retailers and producers will be selling delicious food and gifts to take home.

The Craft Village

There's a lot to see and buy in the main craft marquee where artists, designers and craftsmen from around the UK will be exhibiting and demonstrating their skills. Be tempted to buy for yourself, or purchase some exceptional Christmas presents for special people.

Craft demonstrations are always highlight of the show. It's a great opportunity to watch crafts in the making. There are a lot of working craftsmen scattered around the main craft marquee and in smaller individual demonstration marquees Artists, Blacksmiths, Chainsaw Carvers, Glass Blowers, Textiles and Pottery Throwing are just few of the demonstrations to be seen.

New this year is the Countryside Arena – this may be your last chance of the year to see majestic shire horses, magnificent birds of prey, an owl show and the popular children's favourites, the ferrets.

The final element of the show is the large gift marquee which plays host to a wide range of gifts, ladies fashion jewellery, tweed clothing & household goods. With Christmas just around the corner it's a great early shopping opportunity.

There's lot's to see, lot's to do, lot's to buy and lot's to eat at the new look Thame Craft Food & Gift Fair.

For full show information please view: www.livingheritagecraftshows.com. Tel 01283 820548.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

WHICH? report April 2014. Independent hearing aid providers come out on top

According to a WHICH? report carried out in March and April 2014 Independent hearing aid providers were rated as the most satisfactory compared to Boots, Amplifon, Specsavers and Hidden Hearing.
An independent hearing aid audiologist is able to prescribe hearing aids from all manufacturers and find the exact system to suit your needs and budget. However some of the high street hearing aid retailers are tied to specific manufacturers therefore giving a limited choice.
Buying a hearing aid system is not just about the cost of the aid itself, you are purchasing an on-going package and so other things to consider are:-

1. Who is going to fit my hearing aids, and will I subsequently see the same person?
2. What is the level of ongoing aftercare and support after your hearing aids have been fitted?
3. Is the aftercare and support included in the price of the hearing aid system?
4. What is the length of the manufacturers warranty?
5. Can you trial the hearing system?
6. What are the ongoing costs i.e. batteries and wax guards?

Beware, some companies offer free guides on hearing aids and follow these up with home visits. They are often lead generation companies who operate in a sales based way. They may sell your information on to other large hearing aid providers who will target you with mail and telephone calls to entice you to buy their hearing aid systems. The same can also be said for websites which appear to offer comparatively low priced hearing aids.

If you are thinking of purchasing a hearing system it is important to compare the cost with a like for like hearing aid system and what aftercare is included. If the aftercare is not included in the cost of the system then how much will it typically cost you over the life of your hearing aids.

It can take time to fit and adjust a hearing system correctly so that it is working to maximise your hearing. Without a professional, attentive fitting, and programming by an experienced audiologist and a reliable aftercare service in place it is possible that your hearing aids will end up in a drawer somewhere because they failed to give you the benefits that you expected.

The difference between a good and a bad hearing aid solution is not usually the aid itself, since most aids are made by a handful of manufacturers. It's more to do with the professional fit and service given by the provider. Hearing aids are only as good as the expertise of the dispensing audiologist.

Keith Donaghy is an independent hearing aid audiologist with over 28 years experience of prescribing hearing aid systems in the Oxfordshire area. A consultation with him is FREE and he will happily help and advise you which, if necessary, hearing system will suit your lifestyle and budget the best. All with no obligation, what have you got to lose?

I AM UNIQUE

WIDEX UNIQUE™
LIVE LIFE LARGE

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

With the WIDEX UNIQUE™ family, we don't claim to do anything different.

We just do it better.

We can do this because we have refined the entire process of digital sound processing to push the barriers of performance.

The WIDEX UNIQUE™ hearing aid is loaded with all-new features, including improved A/D converters for incredibly wide input range, a sound classifier for intelligent listening and the Wind Noise Attenuation system that dramatically reduces wind noise, leading to an SNR improvement of 8.4 dB.

But the whole is greater than the sum of its parts, and UNIQUE takes precision and performance to a completely new level in the way it captures, purifies and processes sound.

FROM THE EXTREME TO THE SUBLIME

WIDEX UNIQUE purifies all the sound it captures.

Our powerful Soft Level Noise Reduction reduces bothersome soft noises to provide users with supreme sound quality in any environment, from the extreme to the sublime.

Wind noise is also reduced significantly with the Wind Noise Attenuation system - the industry's best wind noise reduction - which truly adapts to the conditions.

Whether enjoying the solitude of the great outdoors or focusing intensely on tiny details, users of UNIQUE can make the most of the entire soundscape, with pure, clean sound.

COMMUNICATE AS ONE

Like everyone else, hearing aid users are exposed to constantly changing environments.

Responding quickly to these changes is vital. With WIDEX UNIQUE™ Sound Class Technology we have devised a completely new, precise processing system to give users significantly improved sound in every sound environment.

At the core of this is a new Universal listening program that includes a sophisticated classification system. It divides listening environments into nine distinct sound classes.

By searching for specific characteristics in the incoming sound, it is able to instantly assess the sound environment - providing the optimum sound output to suit each individual's unique sound situation and hearing loss.

UNIQUE controls all this input, ensuring everything works together, communicating as one.

In perfect balance.

The classics that never were

HAVE you ever wished legendary author Jane Austen had published more than only six books? Well you're in for an absolute treat thanks to the team of actors bringing unwritten Austen stories to the stage in Austentatious: an improvised Jane Austen novel.

By Alex Ballinger

Following hot on the heels of a sell-out Edinburgh Fringe Festival run, the phenomenal and frantic improvised comedy took to the stage of The Beacon in Portway, Wantage on Sunday as part of the Wantage (not just) Betjeman Literary Festival.

The show offers the audience the opportunity to pitch Austen novels that never were as six-cast members act out an hour-long play in the style of Jane Austen's classics pulled at random from a hat.

Sunday's offering was titled The Beekeeper's Nephew and followed the improvised exploits of Timothy, the bumbling nephew of a wealthy beekeeper, and his womanising military brother Frank.

The unplanned mish-mash of events makes for a surreal offering and farcical characters make jokes that couldn't be bettered after hours of scripting.

The cast's attempts at stifling laughter only added to the extreme ridiculousness of the plot and characters, and the quick wittedness of the ceaselessly talented performers meant there was never a dull moment.

I cried with laughter for the duration and was delighted that somehow, after a climactic fight between the brothers culminating in an attack from a swarm of bees armed with tiny swords, the story drew to a satisfying conclusion.

The packed literary festival audience seemed to enjoy the show as much as I did and this will be a tough act to follow for anyone else in the festival's diary.

The real joy is that you could watch this show over and over and would never see the same play twice and I absolutely intend to see it again at the first opportunity.

My only criticism is that it ended.

The Wantage (not just) Betjeman Literary Festival continues around the town until November 1.

The festival continues this evening with Local Voices: a chance for writers to perform at the King Alfred's Head pub in Market Place from 7.30pm.

For information on the festival visit: wantagebetjeman.com and for future Austentatious dates visit: austentatiousimpro.com

Me, My Selfie and I

AFTER starring in his own TV sitcom, Dan Clark's entertainment career has hit the stage.

And the comedian will be at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot tomorrow night, October 30, with his tour 'Me, My Selfie and I',

Dan, 39, is best known for starring as Don Danbury in BBC Three sitcom, 'How Not to Live Your Life', from 2007 to 2011.

The comedian, who created and produced the show, admitted it was always his intention to be the centre of attention.

"My ego wouldn't allow me to write a show for someone else to star in," Dan jokingly told the Guardian.

"It was great fun.

"There's a certain amount of pressure though and if you wrote and star in it - there's no one else to blame if it doesn't go down well. However, if it does, you get all the glory.

"So in a way, it can be more fun to be part of an ensemble."

He since started a stand-up career that has lasted for four years, but this will be the comic's first visit to the Station Road venue.

Although the word 'selfie' might conjure cringe worthy images of self-obsession and memories of tourist attractions ruined by too many selfie sticks, Dan insisted the word 'seflie' is not a reference to the number of photos he takes of himself, or even the repertoire of jokes thrown about in the show.

By James Richings

Instead, it relates to the length of time he was single for.

"Selfie is, or was, a zeitgeist-y word when I first came up with the tour but it feels a bit overused now," Dan said.

"But a large part of the show was about me being single for 12 years, so it kind of suited it.

"There is only one joke about taking photos in the whole show and it's not even a selfie joke really."

On being asked about any role models he styles himself on, Dan added: "I never ever got advice from anyone and I know that sounds weird, but it's true. I've watched many documentaries and interviews with my heroes or icons over the years and I'm often inspired by things they say, or the story of their ascent.

"Yet no one liner has ever really stuck out."

The show is suitable for over 16s and starts at 8pm.

Tickets cost £12.50.

Katherine Ryan

CANADIAN comedian Katherine Ryan will visit the Glee Club in Oxford for a lot of laughs tomorrow, October 30.

She has appeared on TV shows such as, 'Mock the Week' and '8 out of 10 Cats', and visits the Hythe Bridge Street venue as part of her 'Kathbum' tour.

Tickets cost £16 with doors opening at 6.45pm.

Jools Holland

MUSIC legend Jools Holland will be making his way to the New Theatre in Oxford this Sunday, November 1.

The 57-year old comes to the George Street venue alongside his Rhythm and Blues Orchestra.

Tickets cost £39.90 and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Sean Hughes

COMEDIAN Sean Hughes will be at The Mill Arts Centre in Banbury tomorrow evening, October 31.

The comedian visits the Spiceball Park venue as part of his 'Mumbo Jumbo' tour, which stopped at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot two weeks ago.

Saturday's show starts at 8pm and tickets cost £16.50

He Had Hairy Hands

A SMALL town is plagued by werewolf attacks that threaten to ruin tea time, and there's only one person you can call.

By James Richings

The detective and his sidekick are on the case to find the suspect and bring peace to the town.

Comedy-drama 'He Had Hairy Hands' is a detective werewolf mystery visiting Oxford's Old Fire Station next week. The unique show could only be the creation of Kill The Beast Theatre Company.

Actress Natasha Hodgson said: "We try not to swear in our shows, firstly because it's a bit easy and also so that families can come along without parents worrying, though we do advise that kids under 12 probably shouldn't be exposed to our horrible creations.

"Essentially, we love making shows that are just really fun to watch. Kids get that."

The theatre company is made up of actors and actresses David Cumming, Oliver Jones, Natasha Hodgson, Zoe Roberts and Clem Garritty, who all created it after meeting at Warwick University.

The friends decided to write and perform together after discovering they all had an interest in dark, surreal sitcoms such as, 'The League of Gentlemen,' and 'Nighty Night', and comedy from 'The Mighty Boosh'.

Their first show in 2012, 'The Boy Who Kicked Pigs', was a hit at that year's Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

And in 2014 their second show, 'He Had Hairy Hands', was born.

It won the 'Best Studio Production' nomination at the Manchester Theatre Awards and was chosen as a BBC top pick at the Edinburgh Fringe.

"If you like plot twisting, fast-paced character comedy, 'He Had Hairy Hands' is for you," Natasha said.

"We also make use of gorgeous projections, original music and genuinely amazing costumes (though they are starting to whiff a bit).

"It's the perfect night out for lovers of sketch comedy, noir cinema and anyone who has a soft spot for the B-horror movies of the 1970s."

The show is inspired by buddy-cop TV shows of the 1970s as well as folk-horror films like 'The Wicker Man' and 'Blood On Satan's Claw'.

"And Scooby Doo of course," Oliver added. "All important theatre is inspired by Scooby Doo."

The show starts at 7.30pm on Thursday, November 5, and tickets cost £12.

What's on in OXFORDSHIRE | LISTINGS

Fri, Oct 30, 5pm
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
GORDON CORERA
Like a cyber-James Bond, the computer was born to spy. The work of Alan Turing led to the birth of electronic espionage. In the following decades, computers transformed intelligence from the spy hunting of the Cold War years to the data-driven pursuit of terrorists and the corporate cyber-espionage of the 21st century.
Drawing on unique access to Western intelligence agencies and insights into the most powerful technology companies, BBC Security Correspondent Gordon Corera explores the new space in which the worlds of espionage, diplomacy, international business and technology collide.

Fri, Oct 30, 8pm
The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury
PAUL DANIELS
Back on tour due to massive public demand, one of the world's most entertaining magicians, Paul Daniels, together with his wife and lovely assistant, Debbie McGee, come to The Mill to wield his mystical magic in a truly awe-inspiring show displaying trickery and deft sleight way of hand. This is a unique performance designed to appeal to all the family and definitely not to be missed.

Sat, Oct 31, 7.30pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
DICKENS ABRIDGED
From Adam Long, founding member of The Reduced Shakespeare Company and co-creator of The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged) comes Dickens Abridged – a fast-paced musical comedy. An absurdly talented cast of four brings hundreds of the great author's best-loved characters to life in 70 minutes of madcap Dickensian mayhem.

Sat, Oct 31, 8pm
The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury
SEAN HUGHES: MUMBO JUMBO
Multi award winning comedian Sean Hughes is back with a new show called Mumbo Jumbo. Throughout his life he has been battling to stay on the right side of sanity. This is because in middle age he has realised that the two sides of his brain are in constant conflict. There is common sense against mumbo jumbo and mumbo jumbo seems to have the upper hand. The show consists of stories including being serenaded at the break of dawn by Robert Smith, trekking mountain gorillas in Rwanda and coming to the conclusion that he will never have a proper conversation with his dear mum.

Sunday, November 1, 2pm
The Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
COMEDY CLUB FOR KIDS
Back by popular demand! Guaranteed cracking entertainment for everyone over six and under 400 years old, as some of the best comedians from the UK circuit do what they do best, but without the rude bits!

Tue, Nov 3, 7pm
New Theatre, Oxford
I PURITANI WNO
This new new production brings this universal story of love, derailed by a social divide, dynamically to life by setting it, initially, in Northern Ireland in the 1970s. Elvira's madness immerses her in another time of civil unrest – the English Civil War, complete with period costumes. These contrasting styles highlight Elvira's descent into insanity.

Wed, Nov 4 – Sat, Nov 7
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
PENTECOST
In a remote Balkan church, a remarkable discovery is made: a local curator and an Oxford art historian believe they have found a mural which will change the accepted course of history.
But when a desperate group of armed refugees occupy the church and demand asylum, time starts to run out for both the pair and the painting. It's a race against the clock to save the mural and escape alive…
Winner of the Evening Standard Award for Best New Play, and performed here by University of Oxford students, David Edgar's acclaimed tale is an explosive commentary on art and the value of human life.

Fri, Nov 6, 8pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
POLLY AND THE BILLETS DOUX
Known for their flawless and energy-filled live performances, Polly and the Billets Doux boast a genius blend of folk, pop, rock n' roll, soul, country, blues and even gospel. They released 2013's 'Head of Steam' EP, which charted at 17 on the Radio 1 Indie Chart followed by their critically acclaimed album which featured in 'The Word' magazine's Best New Music.

Sat, Nov 7, 7.30pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
ST GILES ORCHESTRA
St Giles Orchestra returns to Cornerstone for a Halloween-inspired selection of music that goes bump in the night. Featuring the music of Mussorgsky, Saint-Saens, Dukas, Dvorak and Rachmaninov, plus a medley of Harry Potter themes by John Williams.

Sun, Nov 8, 6.30pm
Oxford Wine Café,
JAMIE HOWELL TRIO
Jamie Howell along with Paul Jefferies on bass and Mr Simon 'Stix' Price on drums are hoping to jazz up your Sunday evening.

Tue, Nov 10 – Sat, Nov 21
New Theatre, Oxford
THE BODYGUARD
The Bodyguard, the award-winning musical based on the blockbuster film, is heading on tour in 2015 starring three-time Brit nominee and X-Factor winner, Alexandra Burke as Rachel Marron.
Former Secret Service agent turned bodyguard, Frank Farmer, is hired to protect superstar Rachel Marron from an unknown stalker. Each expects to be in charge – what they don't expect is to fall in love.
A 'brilliant' (The Times), breathtakingly romantic thriller, The Bodyguard features a whole host of Whitney Houston's greatest hits including Queen of the Night, So Emotional, One Moment in Time, Saving All My Love, I'm Your Baby Tonight, Run to You, I Have Nothing, Jesus Loves Me, I Wanna Dance With Somebody and one of the greatest hit songs of all time – I Will Always Love You.

Thu, Nov 12, 8pm
Old Fire Station, Oxford
PHIL BUCKLEY'S BIG IDEA
Have you ever had an earth shatteringly good idea? Phil Buckley hasn't. After meeting a teenage boy who may have changed the world, Phil has decided to turn his life around and make his mark on the world.

Thu, Nov 12, 8pm
Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot
WILD PONIES
Wild Ponies offer dead right, honest songwriting. Headed up by Doug & Telicha Williams, their most recent album 'Things That Used to Shine' garnered widespread critical acclaim, spent 6 weeks in the top 20 of the Americana Music Association Radio chart, and over 20 weeks in the top 40.

Fri, Nov 13, 6.30pm
O2 Academy, Oxford
Y &T
Born in Oakland, California, Y&T are innovators of the hard rock sound. Formed in the early 1970s they continue to tour the world playing songs that span the band's five-decade career, including all the hits and fan favourites.

Sat, Nov 14, 8pm
The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury
NOTORIOUS: THE DURAN DURAN TRIBUTE BAND
The Duran Duran Experience are the most professionally presented and authentic sounding Duran Duran tribute band in the UK. The band comprises of 5 professional musicians with years of live performance experience at the highest level across Europe, ensuring that The Duran Duran Experience are not only an exceptional live act with the highest level of musicianship – but also present the music of Duran Duran to meticulous detail of sound and presentation.

Mon, Nov 16 – Sat, Nov 21
OXFORD PLAYHOUSE, OXFORD
Rebecca
Kneehigh, one of most celebrated theatre companies of the 21st century, returns to Oxford with their spellbinding new production of Rebecca.
Following the mysterious death of his first wife, Maxim de Winter returns to Manderley with his new young bride. Surrounded by memories of the glamorous Rebecca, the new Mrs De Winter is consumed by jealousy. She sets out to uncover the secrets of the house and a past fiercely guarded by the sinister housekeeper Mrs Danvers. All is not what it seems in Manderley… Rebecca is timeless; the book beloved by generations and the iconic Alfred Hitchcock film a classic of the genre. Emma Rice, the award winning director, has created a spellbinding new production of Daphne du Maurier's masterpiece which conjures Cornish romance and theatrical magic.

Tue, Nov 17, 7.30pm
The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury
MAD MAX
Marking a welcome return for the hugely successful Mad Max franchise, this latest futuristic outing pitches Max into the starkest of desert landscapes where death and danger stalk him. Haunted by his turbulent past, Mad Max believes the best way to survive is to wander alone. Nevertheless, he becomes embroiled with a disparate group fleeing across the wasteland. Enraged, the Warlord marshals all his gangs and pursues the rebels ruthlessly in the high-octane Road War that follows.

Tues, Nov 17 – Sat, Nov 21
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
DART
I'm looking for what is the 'I' of a landscape, what is the changeable part that brings it alive, and it's always water.
Adapted for the stage from Alice Oswald's award-winning poem, DART gives voice to the River Dart as it flows across Devon from source to sea.
Using words from the people who live and work alongside the river, this piece portrays characters from the mythical and mundane, carrying the audience on a charming journey downstream.
This exciting student show blends sound, film and illustration into a performance that will immerse you in the sights and sounds of the Dart.

Tues, Nov 17 – Sat, Nov 21
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

CALAN
Fiddles, guitar, accordion, bagpipes and step dancing explode into life as Calan perform songs and tunes from their 2015 release Dinas. Infectious guitar rhythms and high-voltage routines give way to beautiful and haunting songs. Calan bring together the remarkable talents of five young musicians to give a fresh and vibrant sound to traditional Welsh music.
With a contemporary and lively approach, they breathe new life into the old traditions through their sparkling melodies, foot tapping tunes and spirited and energetic performances of Welsh step dancing.

Tuesday, November 24 – Saturday, November 28
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

THE CHALLENGING
One of Jacobean England's most monstrous offspring, The Changeling is a psychological thriller that's second to none.
Betrothed to one man but in love with another, Beatrice-Joanna finds a very violent way out of her predicament. But when the servant she bribes to perform the murder asks for her virginity in return the situation quickly escalates into blood and madness.
Ringing with howls, gnashings and hellish torments, this intense production blends original live music, dance and acrobatics into an evening of murderous passion.

Tues, Nov 24 – Sat, Nov 28
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford

PUSSYFOOTING
A young girl squares up to a dragon. A small boy packs away his skirts. An advert tells us what to be at any cost.
Drawing on our culture's wildly varied presentations of women, this is a fearsome journey through society's wild patchwork of performed femininity.
Devised by Knotworks, an exciting new student ensemble, this is a politicised, tender and funny look at modern womanhood in all its forms.
Be warned: despite the name Pussyfooting does not tread lightly.

Tue, Nov 24, 7.30pm
New Theatre, Oxford

Tues, December 8, 7pm
The Theatre, Chipping Norton

JANE EYRE

Almost 170 years on, Charlotte Brontë's story of the trailblazing Jane is as inspiring as ever. This bold and dynamic production uncovers one woman's fight for freedom and fulfilment on her own terms.
From her beginnings as a destitute orphan, Jane Eyre's spirited heroine faces life's obstacles head-on, surviving poverty, injustice and the discovery of bitter betrayal before taking the ultimate decision to follow her heart.
This acclaimed re-imagining of Brontë's masterpiece was first staged by Bristol Old Vic last year, when the story was performed over two evenings. Director Sally Cookson now brings her celebrated production to the National, presented as a single, exhilarating performance.

Sunday, December 6, 8pm
The Cornerstone Arts Centre, Didcot

STRINGFEVER

If you're looking for an evening's entertainment like you've never seen before, then meet Giles, Ralph, Graham and Neal Broadbent collectively known as Stringfever. With their electric instruments and live beat-boxing, the world's first genetically modified string quartet combine exceptional musical skill with a real talent for involving and engaging audiences to provide you with a night you'll never forget.

The Theatre, Chipping Norton

THE SECOND MOTHER

Val spends 13 years working as a nanny in Sao Paulo. She is financially stable but has to live with the guilt of having left her daughter Jessica in the north of Brazil to be raised by relatives. As college entrance exams roll around, Jessica wants to come to Sao Paulo to take her exams, but they soon realise it's not so easy to live together again as they hoped. Savvy, fiercely funny and fast-paced, this is a great and expressive film on class, family and the way world politics impacts on individuals.

UKHCA – UNITED KINGDOM HOME CARE ASSOCIATION

Halloween 2015 at the Box Office

The scariest 'holiday' of the year is upon us, and as per usual there's a selection of films trying to terrify us over the weekend in question. We've picked four, all of which prove that sometimes there's nothing more fun than a good fright.

CRIMSON PEAK ; dir. Guillermo del Toro; 15

Starring: Mia Wasikowska, Jessica Chastain, Tom Hiddleston

The most mature title in our selection of horrors comes from the man behind Pan's Labyrinth . Set in a spooky mansion that has a rather bloody past, we follow as an aspiring author gets caught somewhere between an old childhood friend and mysterious newcomer, slowly losing grip on reality as the walls close in. Unsettling to the last, this is by far del Toro's darkest movie to date, straddling the line between adult fantasy and nightmare. Highly recommended stuff, just don't expect to sleep that well afterwards.

• Guillermo del Toro's Crimson Peak

HOWL ; dir. Paul Hyett; 18

Starring: Ed Speleers, Holly Weston, Elliot Cowan

Britons love complaining about public transport, but as Paul Hyett's werewolf flick shows, we don't know how good we've got it. On the train to fictitious Eastborough- presumably a London commuter town- there are the usual characters; ignorant youths, even ruder city slickers, pensioners and everyday Joes. Sadly, their destination winds up being a few miles from the final stop after the carriages career into something. You can probably guess what that is. At times laughable, but still packed with jumps.

PARANORMAL ACTIVITY- The Ghost Dimension ; dir. Gregory Plotkin

Starring: Chris J. Murray, Brit Shaw, Ivy George

Given how long the Paranormal Activity franchise has been running, everyone knows what to expect- found footage. In this instance some people discover an old VHS tape (remember those?) in their home, and decide to give it a watch. Disturbingly, it shows children being put in a trance-like state, but even more worrying is when those kids begin responding to what the viewers are saying. Opening the portal between one realm and another, if you find little ones freaky as hell we wouldn't recommend.

THE DIABOLICAL ; dir. Alistair Legrand; 15

Starring: Ali Larter, Max Rose, Chloe Perrin

You have to wonder exactly what Ali Larter did wrong in another life. First the blonde bombshell had death pursuing her in Final Destination , now all she wants to do is raise her young 'uns well, but the house she's decided to do that in appears to be plagued by some kind of ominous spirit. Looking to her scientist boyfriend, Nikolai, what follows is a Poltergeist -esque hunt to work out exactly what's sharing the address with them, and what it wants. Needless to say, we've all been here before, but that's not really the point, is it?

Renault pays homage to Le Corbusier

By James Richings

RENAULT'S designers have unveiled a concept car to make its mark on the world of art and architecture more than to fill company coffers.

The team has created a car to pay homage to one of the world's best-known architects for the 50th anniversary of Le Corbusier's death this year.

The Coupé Corbusier will be on show at the Villa Savoye in France until March next year.

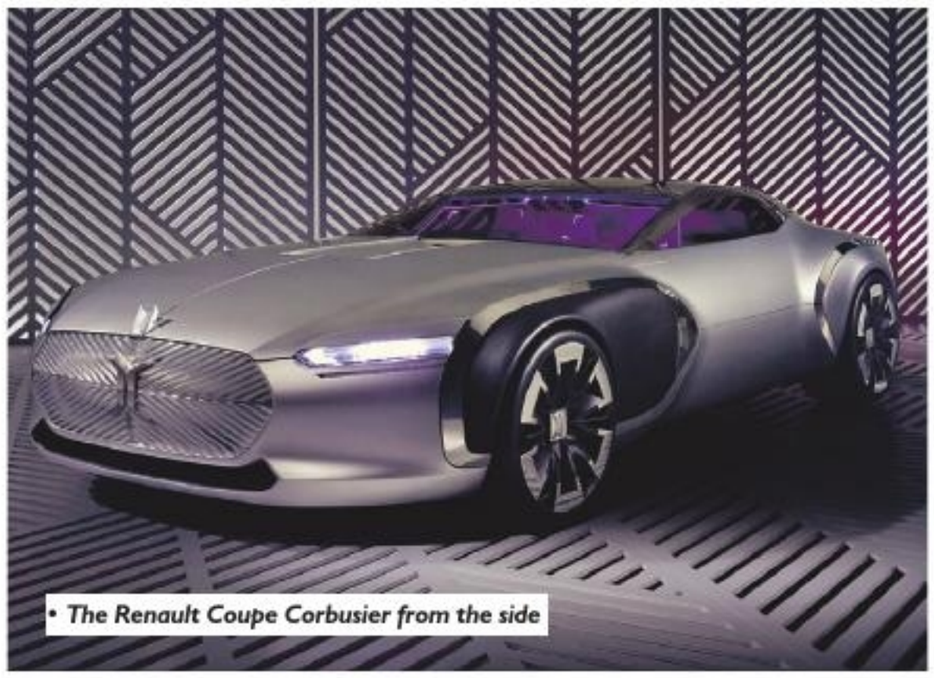
The design team pledged simplicity, geometric elegance and mastery of light was the inspiration behind the project.

The project began two years ago when the teams decided to investigate the topic of 'French cultural objects'.

Their research soon led them back to the golden age of the car in the 1930s, and the influence of Le Corbusier.

The first design statement that draws attention to the one-off car is its sizeable and fierce yet stylish looking grille with metallic badging.

In fact metallic silver decoration and edging is used again and again to make a bold statement from the oversize wheel arch decoration to geometric wheel trim.



• The Renault Coupe Corbusier from the side

• The car from front on

But as much as it is an homage to the past, and Le Corbusier, the first word that comes in mind to describe it is futuristic.

Groupe Renault has indeed branded it as "future-looking", to "explore new ways forward".

Which gives a sense on how much Le Corbusier's contribution is still relevant today.

Charles-Édouard Jeanneret, known as Le Corbusier, was an internationally influential French-Swiss architect and city planner.

He was inspired by the automobile and dubbed a pioneer of modern architecture who tried to design better living conditions for the residents of crowded cities.

Renault's concept is on display at Villa Savoye, a modernist villa on the outskirts of Paris, which was designed by Le Corbusier himself between 1929 and 1931.

France's Centre des Monuments Nationaux, a government body that manages historic buildings and sites owned by the state, is putting on an exhibition at Villa Savoye called 'Cars for living: the automobile and modernism in the 20th and 21st centuries'.

The car was unveiled last Thursday and will be on display until March 20.

United star loan ends after Wolves recall

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD United suffered a blow on Tuesday with the news that promising winger Jordan Graham had been recalled from his loan spell at Oxford United by parent club Wolverhampton Wanderers.

The winger had only agreed an extension to remain at the Kassam Stadium until late December after he put in a series of promising performances.

Graham made six appearances for United since arriving in September and starred in the 2-0 win over Swindon Town in the Football League Trophy on October 6, in which he made his debut.

The 20-year-old was recalled by Wolves after the Championship club were hit by a series of injuries and the winger is expected to go straight into the squad to play Birmingham on Saturday.

Oxford United head coach, Michael Appleton, said: "It's a shame because he has done really well for us and was enjoying being part of the squad, but Wolves had a recall option in the loan and have a number of first team players out so it's a wonderful opportunity for him.

"We wish him well and will certainly keep an eye on his progress.

"We are fortunate to have a number of options in the wide positions and we will look at all of those in the next few days as we prepare for the trip to Stevenage on Saturday."

Graham scored no goals for United in his short spell at the club despite starring down the right flank alongside right back George Baldock and the loanee had come under big praise from his teammate earlier this season.

The right-back has said the winger had a 'big future', saying: "I think he can be as good as he wants to be if I'm honest.

"He is quite a lively character and he took us back a bit when he first arrived because he's got a lot of confidence."

Graham's departure leaves Oxford with Callum O'Dowda and Alex MacDonald as the preferred first-team flank options, though; Kemar Roofe has previously been deployed down the flanks.

Oxford travel to Steveange at the weekend before taking on Braintree Town in the first round of the FA Cup the following Saturday at Cressing Road.

The furthest United have got in the competition is the Quarter-finals, which was back in 1964 when they lost 2-1 to Preston North End.

Millers beaten for first time

NORTH Leigh lost for the first time in the league this season in a 2-1 defeat to title rivals Cinderford Town as the Millers dropped to second in the league.

Michael Hopkins got the goal for the Millers in added time in the second half after Lorcan Sheehan and Ethan Moore had put the home side in front.

Leigh had a strong start to the game with Kieran Sanders and Aaron Woodley both going close.

The first-half saw no balls hit the back of the net but the Millers' Morgan Williams proved to be a nuisance to the Cinderford defence throughout the 45 minutes.

Two minutes into the second half, the Millers were behind after Sheehan scored from an optimistic shot from twelve yards with Leigh's James Foster unsighted.

Leigh then shot themselves in the foot as a back pass from Hopkins to Foster was pounced on by Cinderford substitute Moore who slotted the ball past the advancing 'keeper in what was yet another soft goal for Leigh to concede.

Hopkins managed to get Leigh's consolation deep into injury time, finding space in the area before hammering home a left footed shot into the top corner.

Palmer pens deal for Lotus' 2016 season

• Jolyon Palmer (picture courtesy of Lotus F1)

LAST year's GP2 champion Jolyon Palmer will partner Pastor Maldonado at the Lotus F1 team next season, it was announced last Friday.

Englishman Palmer has been the Enstone squad's third and reserve driver throughout 2015, driving in a number of first practice sessions during the year.

He replaces Romain Grosjean, who is leaving Lotus at the end of this season to join the new Haas F1 team.

"I'm obviously delighted that I'll be racing in Formula One next year," said Palmer.

"Lotus gave me a tremendous opportunity this season and I thank them for assisting my development to a level where they have put their trust in me for a crucial season in their evolution.

"I've enjoyed and learnt a lot from my year as third and reserve driver so I'm looking forward to putting this into practice as a race driver in 2016.

"I can't wait for next season to get underway."

Gerard Lopez, team principal of Lotus, added: "We've seen Jolyon's hard work and talent this season in the way he's approached his third driver role and he is a really popular choice for the team.

"He deserves this opportunity, and everyone at Enstone is excited to see what he can achieve next year."

U's feel the Barnet buzz in 3-2 goal-mouth feast

By Loughlan Campbell

A FIRST-HALF thriller at the Kassam Stadium in which Barnet scored three goals in five minutes led to the U's first home defeat of the season.

A brace from star midfielder Liam Sercombe was undone by a flurry of goals in a sustained period in the first half by Barnet as John Akinde, Curtis Weston and Josh Clarke rampaged through the U's defence and slotted home.

Oxford went ahead after a corner wasn't cleared by Barnet and Sercombe stepped up to hammer it in from just inside the box.

A beautifully clipped in free-kick on 25 minutes led to Weston firing the ball home before Akinde fire home just hree minutes later.

Clarke then added to the U's woes as he slipped through to slot home to put the Bees two goals up on 31 minutes.

Oxford's Jordan Graham couldn't keep his cool following a penalty shout for United turned down after Graham was tackled in the area and the winger took out Elliot Johnson gaining himself a yellow card.

Bira Dembele was then carded after he swung out an arm at Kemar Roofe to bring the playmaker down just a minute later with the game reaching a boiling point just over a half an hour into play.

Sercombe then managed to lift the home fans to their feet on 40 minutes after the midfielder rescued the ball from a challenge, charged into the area and fired home.

In a mad minute in the second half, Barnet nearly made it four through Michael Gash before Roofe was denied by a point-blank save from Stephens and a Baldock shot was claimed to have knocked a Barnet hand but the referee ruled out a penalty.

Larks defy Freds in 3-2 comeback win

WANTAGE Town suffered more misfortune as they threw away a two-goal lead to be beaten 3-2 by Larkhall Athletic on Saturday at Alfredian Park.

The match was played in wet conditions, with Wantage heading into the game, desperate for a league win, but were undone in the second half by the visitors.

After a poor first-half that saw neither side break the deadlock, Ben Whitehead scored his thirteenth league goal of the season after intercepting a Larks pass and he barrelled the ball in from three yards out on 50 minutes.

Whitehead then added his second of the game from the penalty spot ten minutes later after Nick Thorne was brought down in the area.

The Larks continued to hit back at the Freds and 'keeper Daniel Smith had to be alive to a powerful shot from Jamie Lyons that was looming goal bound until Smith pushed it away.

Athletic managed to get a goal back with 72 minutes played as Lyons knocked the ball in before teammate James Billing equalised for the Larks with eight minutes remaining.

Three minutes later, Dan Cleverley rounded out the scoring; as he beat Smith to seal a comeback win for Athletic, confirming Daniel Barry's side to their ninth league defeat of the season.

Up next for Daniel Barry's men is a trip to Wimborne Town on Saturday before they follow that up with a tricky encounter at Bishop's Cleeve the following weekend.

The Freds are currently 17th in the Southern League Division One South & West table, taking 11 points.

Smith praises team after 'fantastic' Malaysia race

OXFORD'S Bradley Smith proclaimed his 4th place finish at the Moto GP Malaysian Grand Prix on Sunday as a 'fantastic result'.

The Monster Yamaha Tech3 Team rider rode determinedly to secure the result at round 17 of the Championship, starting from the third row but finishing the opening lap in 10th.

By lap 4, Smith had got himself into 7th position, and halfway through the race the satellite rider was riding in 6th.

He managed to navigate his way past Crutchlow on the 11th lap, finishing ahead of his fellow Brit and Italy's Danilo Petucci in the final standings.

Smith, 24, said after the race: "Finishing this race in this position is a fantastic result after such a challenging weekend.

"Going from 14th at the end of day one to 4th today highlights the great effort by the team and I must thank them for this.

"It is amazing to get 13 points as we have now extended the points lead over Andrea Dovizioso for 6th place in the championship. So we definitely have something to celebrate and we can go home with a smile on our faces."

The final round of the MotoGP World Championship is set to take place in Valencia on November 8 where Smith will be aiming to seal his sixth place finish and cement what's been a throughly successful season for the young rider.

Chinnor hold on for first league win

CHINNOR RFC earned their first win of the season in a highly contested 15-11 victory over Canterbury.

The Oxfordshire side had previously failed to win their first seven games in the National League 2 South, only managing to scramble six bonus points from the encounters.

Chinnor got an early penalty which was converted by Will Millett and Junior Fatialofa nearly managed to get to the line before he was tackled just a few yards short of it.

A strong push from the back row managed to give the away side the impetus as Daz Oliver, on his birthday, got himself over the line for a try, which was then converted by Millett.

The visitors managed to hold the 10-point lead before Canterbury converted a penalty from the restart and moving into the second half, the home side managed to win themselves another penalty to put the score at 10-6 to Chinnor.

However, a scintillating try from Fatialofa, which saw him weave his through the defence to secure an unconverted try was Chinnor's highlight of the second half.

The away side held on in the last 20 minutes despite Canterbury managing to score another unconverted try to reduce the deficit to 11-15.

Chinnor are 14th in the National League 2 South table.

Sport Bites

Ladies lose

HOCKEY: Kim Haynes scored for Oxford Hockey Club Ladies' 1st team in a 3-1 defeat to Division 2 league leaders, Wimbledon.

Meanwhile, the Men's 1st team were beaten 2-0 by top-of-the-table Eastcote, with the winners arguably winning against the run of play.

However, Oxford Ladies' 2nd team secured a 2-0 win over Bracknell's 1st team with Jill Gordon and Meg Scott getting the goals.

Non-league Round Up

FOOTBALL: Kidlington were beaten 2-1 by Ascot United at the Racecourse Ground to drop to fifth in the Hellenic League Premier.

Ardley United continued their slump in form in a 4-1 defeat to Longlevens AFC at the Sawmills End.

Whilst Thame United secured a 1-0 win over Milton United in an Oxfordshire derby at the ASM Stadium.

Star departs

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars confirmed the departure of Steve Osman on Tuesday.

Head Coach Simon Anderson said: "I am obviously disappointed that Steve has decided to leave the Stars. He told me he wasn't happy and was finding it hard to adapt to our style of play.

"I appreciate his professionalism in all of this and I wish him the best moving forward."

Can City go the distance?

ANALYSIS: With Oxford City's winger Luke Coulson on trial at National League side Crewe Alexandra, it seems that Justin Merritt's side are getting noticed more and more.

The Blues' National League South season has been one of many highs for the current side, who achieved their highest ever league position of second back in September, and have so far, managed to hold on to it.

Merritt's side are involved in a top-of-the-table tussle with Whitehawk and Maidstone United, over trying to clinch hold of second place with Ebbsfleet United cruising out in front, nine points clear of Oxford.

After losing Adi Yussuf to Mansfield Town in the summer, the goal scoring duties have fallen upon Bradley Bubb, who has risen to the challenge and has netted seven goals for City so far this season.

With Kynan Isaac, Julen Lafuente, Coulson and Omari Sterling-James in the squad, Oxford arguably have a real chance to truly cement a promotion challenge.

ABINGDON'S FORM HITS ROCKY PATCH

By Loughlan Campbell

ABINGDON United suffered their thirteenth league defeat of the season in a 3-1 defeat to relegation battlers Bracknell Town at the Northcourt on Tuesday. Jamie Essex got the goal for United who fell behind early on in the first half after Shane Cooper-Clark opened the scoring for Bracknell Town.

Despite putting in a battling performance, Dan Money restored Bracknell's lead just before the break and then Cooper-Clark sealed the win for the away side with just over twenty minutes to go, beating two defenders before firing in.

The win was the last game in charge for Bracknell's Lee Simpson before Mark Tallentire takes over the reigns.

United said goodbye to star player Kieran Cochrane on Saturday who marked his last game for the side on Saturday with a goal in a 3-0 win over Brackley Town Saints.

Cochrane's departure is due to a move to Spain with his family and he put in a worthy final bow as United ran riot over the Saints at the Northcourt.

Abingdon had started the game poorly, with Saints controlling the first half and not giving United any space to hit them on the counterattack.

Jamie Essex had a shot turned away early on but Brackley came close on multiple occasions with United 'keeper Jack Griffin kept busy throughout the half.

Essex then opened the scoring in the 52nd minute, taking a cross down to his feet and ploughing the ball past the flailing Saints 'keeper.

Cochrane nearly made it two for United shortly afterwards with his curling free kick just palmed away for a corner.

The forward then won a penalty for his side on 65 minutes after he was brought down in the area and Cochrane gave the keeper no chance with the spot kick, sending him the wrong way.

George Reid forced an effort to be tipped over the bar a few minutes later before Essex rounded out the scoring with a low drive from the left to seal the win with twenty minutes to go.

Next for Steve Alman's side is a trip to Lydney Town in the Hellenic League on Saturday before taking on league leaders Flackwell Heath on November 14.

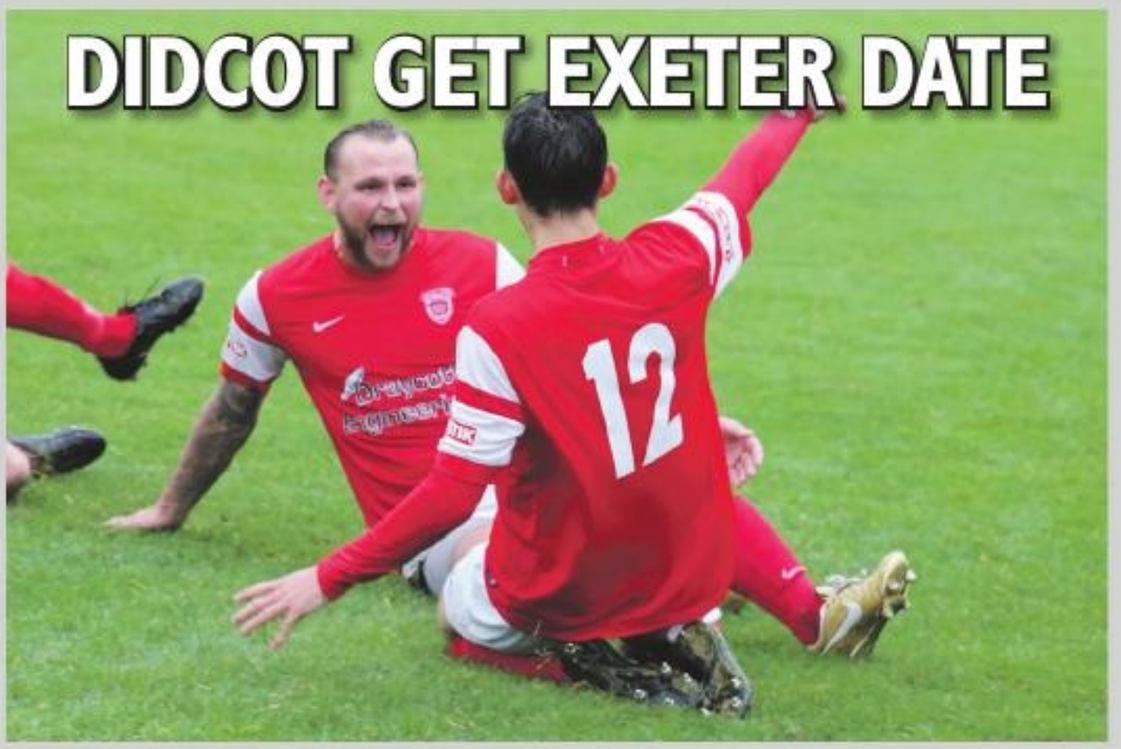
DIDCOT GET EXETER DATE



DIDCOT Town joint-manager Ian Concannon proclaimed 'anything can happen' for his side after they were awarded a home tie against Exeter City in the FA Cup first round next Sunday.

Diddy were given the draw on Monday following their dramatic 4-2 defeat over Brentwood Town FC at the Loop Meadow on Saturday.

Concannon said: "This cup has a few upsets and who says we can't pull a surprise? Anything can happen in 90 minutes of football."
